NOT SWORN TO.

Charles Vollmar proprietor at Vollmar's park while crossing the river last week saw a large object in the water, thinking it was a log which was floating in the water, but on further investigation found it to be a large carp and as luck would have it a corn cutter was in the boat. Mr. Vollmar not a bit afraid struck at the carp with the corn cutter, and sliced off a hunk which weighed 12½ lbs. The large fish did not seem to mind it a bit. It is supposed to be one of Ed. Blue's pet carp.—Special to Tontogany Times.

The Journal editor is pleased to learn the name of the person who mutilated one of his pets. The loss of 12½ lbs. from the tail end of a carp, however, will in no manner interfere with the growth of the fish, as it is our custom to amputate a portion of each carp every spring as this method causes a more rapid and healthy growth, causing the fish to grow in length instead of girth. The process operates just the same as the clipping of the ends of the human hair, and causes no pain to the carp as the tail is used only as a propeller and does not contain any nerves and therefore no feeling.

OUR FATAL FOURTH

Its Dangers Still Prevalent in Some Parts of Ohio.

This bulletin is designed to warn the people of those communities in Ohio, who remain unprotected by proper ordinances from the sale of dangerous fireworks and the injuries likely to result from their use. Happily the residents of many of our cities and villages can view the approach of our nation's anniversary with entire equanimity, for their councils, in their wisdom have provided against the sale of those dangerous agencies with which young America was wont to celebrate the day.

Last year this department, in an effort to do something practical to eliminate the dangers to life and property incident to our mistaken ideas concerning a proper celebration of the Fourth, sent out copies of ordinances regulating the sale of fireworks and recommended that they be passed by the various councils in municipalities throughout the state. As a result of the legislation passed prior to the last fourth of July, there was a reduction of fifty (50) per cent in accidents and fires in this state incident to the celebration.

Many of our towns, however, remain unprotected. It was these that furnished the fires and the list of maimed and injured which still disgrace and discredit our intelligence.

The Less Dangerous Kinds.

Red fire does not explode; the pin-wheel is fastened to a tree; the Roman candle discharged from the curbstone burns nothing but a wrisp.

The dynamite torpedo often used on street railway tracks is not dangerous to the occupants of the car but it is a terror to hysterical nerves. In Columbus a boy lost three fingers trying to drive a nail through one of them.

The small Chinese firecracker, which is used in greater number than any other, fire work, destroys most property and fewest lives. The paper of the cracker often glows for minutes after it is exploded, igniting trash in which it falls. The electric sparkler is harmless, unless its wire while still redhot, is thrown into rubbish. Garden pieces and the new 'cannon string' which contains thousands of crackers, are safe enough because they must be fired by an adult.

A Deadly Thing.

"The most deadly thing used in our annual outbreak of savagery called patriotism is the toy pistol. It explodes a paper cap containing chlorate of potash and pieces of the paper are often driven under the skin of the hand. Street dust at all times carries bacilli which cause lockjaw if buried in human flesh so that air cannot reach them. A most dangerous practice is to cover such a wound with a plaster. All penetrating wounds from fireworks must be laid open by a surgeon and dressed so that air can enter them. The deaths in the United States from lockjaw following the Fourth have ranged from 105 to 466. Fortunately there is now a serum for the cure of lockjaw."

Then after it is all over and its toll of death, maiming and fire is taken, see to it that your city or village council passes such ordinances as will protect you and yours in the future.

JOHN W. ZUBER,
State Fire Marshal.

PERRYSBURG DEFEATED

At North Baltimore Sunday By the score of 7 to 2.

The Perrysburg ball club journeyed to North Baltimore Sunday and were defeated 7 to 2 in a fast and interesting game.

Noble was There With the Stick Getting Three Bingles.

The local team was deficient in four of its regular players, Pitchers Charles and Corbin, and Catcher Scott and Hickler being out, which weakened the team considerably, although Fuller behind the bat, and Williams at the mound, did good work considering the fact that this was the first game they have worked in these positions this year.

Williams and Noble Held a Consultation that Caused a Run.

Only two of the opposing team's tallies were earned, the remainder being made on wild pitches and errors. Snyder, in left field, had an exceptionally good day, accepting six chances without a wobble.

Snyder Had a Great Day in the Field.

It was a hard game to lose, the first one away from home. The boys worked hard to take the lead, but their efforts were rewarded by only (Continued on Fourth Page.)

FATAL ACCIDENT

Elmer Bortel Riding Motor-Cycle Collided With Car.

About 4:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon, Elmer Bortel, known as "Mike," and living near Weston, received injuries which proved fatal by reason of a collision. Bortel was riding a motor-cycle and coming from Dunbridge (travelling west) and when arriving at the bend he made the short turn in the road to cross the T. B. G. & S. T. Co.'s track and go west on the Ziss road, but as he arrived at the bend he observed a street car coming, and seeing that he could not make the crossing, he turned northward along the right of way. The space between the rail of the culvert and the track is probably not more than nine feet, too narrow for him to succeed in his purpose.

The rear wheel was struck by the car-steps and it is believed the latter also struck him in the back. The impact was so great that the car-steps were broken off. He was thrown into the ditch where he would have drowned had not the car crew backed up and rescued him.

The injured man was taken to Bowling Green, where he received medical attention and on Monday afternoon was taken to his home, but while in the ambulance, about five miles from Weston, he expired. He had not gained consciousness from the time he was injured.

TEN PUPILS

Graduated from Common Schools at Lime City, Friday Evening.

The commencement held at Lime City on Friday evening, on which occasion ten pupils from Perrysburg township schools participated, was one of the most pleasing school events ever held in the township.

The exercises were held in the M. E. church at Lime City. The church was appropriately and charmingly decorated with bunting, flags, plants and flowers with the words "Class of 1911" in large letters adorning the wall back of the pulpit.

The church was crowded and many were standing in the vestibule and near the windows and wherever it was possible to see and hear the exercises.

Prof. D. A. Haylor, the township superintendent, under whose direction the commencement was held, had arranged the program so as to make it especially interesting and introduced Rev. E. J. Webster, who invoked Divine blessing upon the assembly and the occasion.

A vocal solo by Miss Ila Simmons, herself a township teacher and graduate of Perrysburg High school, was a pleasing selection most charmingly rendered. Her piano accompaniment was played by her sister, Miss Simmons.

Following this were three recitations—Make Way for Liberty, by Lester Lusher; Scott and the Veteran, by Alta Zingg; and The Battle of Bunker Hill, by Alma Haley, were selections that were well rendered and very pleasing.

A vocal solo by Mrs. R. E. Allen of Bowling Green, was a splendid selection rendered in Mrs. Allen's customary able manner.

"Beautifying the Home," an oration by Francis Frantz, and the Mission of America, oration, by Mary Hitchcock, were presented in a very creditable manner.

Miss Beverstock of Bowling Green, gave a piano solo which greatly pleased the audience.

The oration, Progress of Humanity, by Ruth Mogie; Alfred Zingg's recitation, The Heritage; the oration, Modern Times, by John Loesch, Jr., the recitation "Success in Life," by Phoebe Johnson, and the recitation, "The Present Crisis," by Agnes Schwind, completed the list of literary efforts on the part of the pupils, and it can be truthfully stated the entire class demonstrated much ability in their efforts, and all acquitted themselves creditably.

Miss Ila Simmons gave a second vocal number and her sweet voice and careful enunciation made her selections especially pleasing.

Mrs. Allen's closing solo was admirably rendered.

Prof. Haylor presented each pupil with the necessary credentials, showing they had complied with the law and performed all duties required and were therefore entitled to receive the Boxwell-Patterson diplomas from the county board of examiners.

Rev. Webster closed the exercises with a class address, in which he spoke of PREPARATION being one of the greatest necessities to success in life. He referred to the great opportunities presented the boys and girls of the present day and urged them to accept and make the best of them and then showed how those who are PREPARED are sure to meet with the opportunity to make good use of their preparedness in grasping the opportunities which will come to those who are ready. He referred to Moses, who, when he had grown old enough to understand what he was and to realize that his future was problematic, sought knowledge in every possible way; acquired every branch of learning which it was possible for him to obtain so that when the way was opened to him he was ready to take up any work that might be assigned him, and so fitted himself for the great work that in later years fell upon him to do. He had PREPARED himself and was ready. Rev. Webster urged the young students to (Continued on Fourth Page.)
